

Camp Tuscarora Campmaster Application

The Tuscarora Campmaster Corp is a group of dedicated scouters who help take care of Camp Tuscarora on weekends from September to June of the following year. The Campmaster Corps was founded over 40 years ago. The Campmasters provide unit/site check in & check out, answers the phone, and if necessary; camp security, provide emergency support, and a warm place for unit leaders and Campmasters to socialize and talk over a cup of coffee, just to name a few. There is a fully furnished cabin with a woodstove, 4 bunks, and a fully functioning kitchen. Each Campmaster brings provisions for sleeping. Typically, there are 2 or more Campmasters on duty each weekend. The Campmasters arrange meals among themselves.

Campmaster Requirements:

- 1. All Campmasters must maintain a current BSA registration and Youth Protection Training.
2. Have knowledge of Scouting methods, Scouting Ideals, and some basic outdoor experience i.e. cooking, camping, hiking, etc. Campmasters should be able to assist a unit if asked.
3. Be a welcoming Ambassador to Camp Tuscarora.
4. Attend Campmaster Training and Work Sessions for the good of the Campmaster Corp, if able to do so.
